PERSONAL PROFILE

Full Stack Analyst/Developer with a strategic vision for IT solutions and business automation. My career is built on a passion for technology, supporting diverse sectors including Gas & Energy (Petrobras), Tobacco (Philip Morris), Legal, and Critical Financial Infrastructure (Banco Central/SELIC). This background forged my technical versatility and strategic vision. Highly analytical and a problem-solver, I specialize in identifying bottlenecks and creating automations that deliver measurable efficiency gains. I adapt easily to large corporations or dynamic contexts, excelling at developing creative solutions under pressure. My focus is on understanding context, proposing improvements, and delivering tangible business value. I am a quick learner who values collaboration and seeks impactful challenges.
